EUROPEAN COURT OF HUMAN RIGHTS
COUR EUROPÉENNE DES DROITS DE L'HOMME

DECISION

CASE OF H.P. v. THE NETHERLANDS

(Application no. 31296/17)
introduced on 21 April 2017

The European Court of Human Rights, sitting on 6 July 2017 in a single-judge formation pursuant to Articles 24 § 2 and 27 of the Convention, has examined the application as submitted.

The application refers mainly to Article 11 § 1 of the Convention.

In this regard, the Court finds that the allegedly breached right is outside the range of rights and freedoms guaranteed by the Convention or the Protocols thereto. Accordingly, these complaints are incompatible ratione materiae with the provisions of the Convention within the meaning of Article 35 § 3 (a).

In the light of all the material in its possession and in so far as the matters complained of are within its competence, the Court finds that the remaining complaints do not disclose any appearance of a violation of the rights and freedoms set out in the Convention or the Protocols thereto and that the admissibility criteria set out in Articles 34 and 35 of the Convention have not been met.

The Court declares the application inadmissible.
